Researchers can apply for the pairfam data at their website under the following link:

<https://www.pairfam.de/en/data/data-access/>

The application form has to be filled out with a description of the research project.

Researchers are charged €30 for data access.

The latest release includes the COVID-19 survey. For the paper we were granted preliminary access to survey wave 13. By the time the manuscript was accepted, the survey wave 13 has been publicly released.
